FOLK CAMP

10.-18. NOVEMBER 2018

Join us for a musical experience for life!

Are you a young musician living in Norway? Are you passionate about traditional music, sharing and learning new musical styles? Then you should apply for Ethno FolkCamp 2018. We want to invite young musicians to our week long music camp set in Førde from the 10th until 18th of November.

The newly started project is inspired from Ethno World, a worldwide folk-music camp. The goal for this project is to bring together and showcase the amazing musicians living in Norway. Ethno FolkCamp is a project by JM Norway, the Norwegian branch of Jeunesses Musicales International.

Over eight intense days you will get the opportunity to learn traditional music from all over the world, and share your own music and culture. There will be workshops, seminars, concerts and jams together with the other participants.

After a week of folk-music, we end with a concert in Førde and a tour to Nordfjoreid and Volda.

Ethno FolkCamp participants must be between 18 and 30 years old. The enrolment-fee is set at NOK 500 to participate, but that includes travel, food and lodging throughout the whole week.
